Lt. Governor Peter Kinder Names Hank Krambeck as Senior Service Award Winner

Award recognizes Volunteer work by Missouri Seniors

Jefferson City- Missouri Lieutenant Governor Peter Kinder announced Hank Krambeck of Kirksville as a quarterly winner of the Lieutenant Governor's Senior Service Award. As the official Senior Citizen Advocate for the State of Missouri, Lt. Gov. Kinder created the Award to promote and highlight the positive accomplishments that Missouri's senior citizens continually provide their local communities.

Hank Krambeck was nominated by Dr. Carol Cox at Truman State University for his volunteer work with the Missouri Coalition for Quality Care in Kirksville.

"There are thousands of Missourians whose lives are touched by the unselfish work and caring hand of someone like Hank Krambeck," said Kinder. He added, "These acts of kindness go on unnoticed all around us every day. Mr. Krambeck offers his time and labor back to the community, and I want to bring these stories to the public, so we can all thank him for this work."

Hank Krambeck will receive an official declaration from Lt. Gov. Kinder, a Senior Service Award Lapel pin, and special recognition at the State Capitol from Lt. Gov. Kinder.

Nominees for the Senior Service Award must be at least 60 years old and volunteer a minimum of 40 hours over the past year in their community. Senior volunteers can be nominated on a quarterly basis by filling out a brief form available on Lt. Gov. Kinder's website at www.ltgov.mo.gov. Letters of recommendation must accompany the nomination forms.
